JUDGMENT: (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Sudershan Reddy)

Nothing is brought to our notice that the appeal against the impugned proceedings, does not lie and for that reason we are not inclined to interfere with the order passed by the learned single Judge granting liberty to the appellant to prefer an appeal against the impugned order, dated 06-10-2004, passed by the 1st respondent.

It is needless to observe that, if any, such appeal is preferred, the same shall be received by the appellate authority for its consideration and disposal, in accordance with law, within a period of two months from the date of filing of such appeal.

With the observations as above, the Writ Appeal is disposed of without any order as to costs.

B. SUDERSHAN REDDY, J

Date:13-12-2004.
